

Whoever welcomes a child..... welcomes God.

God of opening doors and wide spaces, of playgrounds and slides, we thank you that you are shown to us in a child.

Take our hand so that we can play with you and learn your games.

Teach us ways that welcome.

Turn our heads to see the hidden things.

Excite us with new ideas.

Encourage us to try again.

Let us know that growing up is good.

Mark 9:36 – 37
